

Madurai S. Subramanya Aiyer

I present to you, Sir, Madurai Shri Subramanya Aiyer.

Born in 1897 at Kannivadi (Tamil Nadu), Shri Subramanya Aiyer is a senior violinist of the Karnatak system. He studied vocal music with Naishadam Sadasiviah and the violin with Karur Chinnaswami Aiyer. Besides being a violinist of repute, he has also a few compositions to his credit. Belonging to the lineage of Shri Tyagaraja, he is well known for his repertoire of rare compositions.

Honoured by various learned bodies, Shri Subramanya Aiyer has been a professor of music at the Annamalai University, Kalakshetra (Madras) and the Madras University.

For his eminence in the field of music and his contribution to its enrichment, Madurai S. Subramanya Aiyer receives the Sangeet Natak Akademi Award for Karnatak Instrumental Music.